CLEAN, honest, economical officials are the only sure cure for overtaxation.
Secure them by voting the republican ticket.

PHOENIX is attempting to introduce shot guns into the present campaign.
They were used by the demopops in their parade the other night. No one but those who carried the guns have the remotest idea as to what they signified.

The name of Robert Frazier was placed upon the republican ticket as a candidate for constable because it was known that he would make an efficient officer. He possesses necessary qualifications and will give satisfaction. Vote for him.

J. KNOX CORBETT will carry into the office of treasurer the same careful, systematic methods which have characterized his private business and rendered it conspicuously successful. You all know him, and his many years of residence among us has emphasized his worthy traits.

Good old Judge Scott! Long his tribe increase,
Has made a splendid justice of the peace;
Give him your vote, and he will serve you two years more As faithfully as he has done before.

JOHN C. SMITH is interested in mining, and materially interested, too, because he has invested his hard earned dollars in developing properties of his own, and in giving employment to miners, and the miners will take this into consideration when they cast their ballots on November third. See that you make a cross that will give John C. Smith your vote.

HENRY BUEHMAN has been tested in the fire of experience. Through all his years of residence among the people of this county, not one word of scandal nor one doubt of his integrity has ever been expressed. His record is one long page of devotion to your interests, and there is not a citizen in this county who can afford to assist in his defeat. You are all acquainted with the method for securing his services for two years.
See that you do not forget your duty on November third.

When you come to the consideration of the candidates for supervisors put on your thinking caps. What do you want? Oh! economy, of course. An honest, fearless administration of county affairs. How will you secure it?
Vote for Henry Buehman and Geo.
Scholefield. The matter is simple enough. Just put the little cross where it belongs on election day and—there you have it. Two better men cannot be secured. There will be no such thing as neglect of duty in the supervisors' office with such men as Buehman and Scholefield on the board.

The noonday sun was shining bright; Tucson was bathed in mellow light, And down the busy streets there came A banner bearing Hopley's name—The candidate for sheriff.
"Hold on!" sang out a democrat;
"Just stop and tell us where you're at!"
"At home!" rang out in thunderous tones;
November winds can't chill my bones, For Hopley will be sheriff.

What's the matter with Eb Williams for probate judge? He's all right. We challenge the production of a man whose integrity is of a higher standard than his. He is determined that right shall prevail and leave no stone unturned to that end. He is capable, honest, obliging—a man in every way fitted to fulfill the duties of the office with credit to himself and advantage to the county.
Put a little cross in the square opposite the name of Eb Williams, for probate judge when you go to the polls and go home with the assurance that you have done a noble deed.

Be not afraid! The "watchers" cannot harm you.

HOPLEY is the next sheriff of Pima county, all right, all right.

ONE week from tomorrow will tell a tale of joy and sorrow to many.

Don't forget to make an X under the stars and stripes. It is a loud shout for economy and prosperity.

The people of Pima county are anxiously awaiting the installment of republicans into the county offices.

So far so good. The republicans are still in the lead in national, territorial, and county politics.

HENRY BUEHMAN's name is a sufficient guarantee of honesty and respectability to gain him a handsome majority for superior.

What Arizona needs is a republican delegation to Congress. The people want a man who will be in sympathy with the McKinley administration.

J. KNOX CORBETT is winning new friends wherever he goes. In addition to the old ones he already has his majority for treasurer will be something very gratifying.

It is a commonplace fact that many democrats are flocking to the standard of Joseph S. Hopley for sheriff. Why?
Because he is so eminently fitted to faithfully discharge the duties of the office.

Those democratic "watchers" will have much to ponder over. Many voters will go into the booth and remain so short a time that it will be proof positive they have voted a straight ticket.
But which ticket? There's where the puzzle is going to strike the "watchers."

CHAS. BOWMAN is not making a great deal of noise in this campaign, but his quiet, gentlemanly efforts are certainly winning for him a strong following of friends who are determined that he shall win in this November race for district attorney.

Do you desire economy in the administration of your county affairs? To be sure you do. Extravagant expenditures in county offices affect you in the same way as similar extravagance in private affairs. Vote for Henry Buehman for superior and secure an attention to your interests that will reward you in a thousand ways.

WHEREVER J. KNOX CORBETT goes in Pima county, and he goes everywhere, he is welcomed by a number of sincere and admiring friends who are "dead set" on seeing him in the treasurer's office for the next two years. They mean to gratify their desire in this direction, and to this end will carefully place a little cross in the square above his name.

THESE are self evident facts: The burden of taxation is resting heavily upon the shoulders of Pima county taxpayers; it has been increased during the last two years; it is time that some steps were taken to relieve the people; the taxpayers are going to lift their load on November the third; the lever they will use is the ballot; they will not be intimidated, even by democratic "watchers," they will cast their votes for the republican nominees and thus secure the relief they are seeking.

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party. Do not sit in idleness and suck your thumbs.
Get a move on your self. Vote for Joseph S. Hopley for sheriff. Do not be satisfied with casting your own vote for him, but organize yourself into a missionary society and go after converts. The work is not difficult. Mr.
Hopley possesses all the qualifications which fit him for the office, and it should be a pleasure to all good citizens to extol his virtues.

Do you know Henry Buehman? That rather a foolish question to ask of a resident of Pima county. Of course you know him; and you have all watched his career through the many years he has been a resident among you. During this time have you ever had reason to doubt his integrity, or his loyalty, or his business ability? Never! His record is clean. Now, don't you want him for superior? Of course you do, and you are going to have him. Put the cross in the proper place, and assert your devotion to your own and everybody else's interest.

It would be the silliest act and an insult to every citizen of the United States to say that there were no good democrats. Only the veriest fanatic would make such an assertion. But, even conceding that all democrats are true blue, which would be as foolish as the other position, we are still of opinion that the republicans of Pima county have placed a really strong, first-class ticket in the field, and one which will command the respect of all intelligent law-abiding citizens. Party lines have been obliterated in this campaign, so it has been said, and you are left free to vote for the men whom you consider best qualified to guard your interests.
The republican candidates will do it.

Geo. P. SCHOLEFIELD is one of the respected old time citizens of this county. He has lived in this territory for the past 16 years, and has become closely identified with the interests of the people. Mr. Scholefield has no leaning towards politics, as a business, and his present nomination was not sought by him; on the other hand, when informed of it he made every possible effort to resign. He was nominated for the important office of superior for the reason that his record as a citizen is such as to command the confidence and respect of every resident of the county. His business methods are those which bring success; and as a member of the board of supervisors, he will bring into action a policy of economy which will be a potential factor in the proper regulation of county expenditures. Vote for him, once again, and you will secure his services.

Don't let the "watchers" get you.

EVERYBODY is whooping it up for Hopley for sheriff.

THERE is no coercion in Pima county; only "watchers."

A VOTE for Hon. A. Doran for congress is a help to statehood.

A CROSS under the flag means good government for Pima county.

Keep your weather eye peeled for the "watchers" on election day.

WATCH the "watchers" watching those who will watch them on November third.

PIMA county proposes to take place in the triumphal procession of victorious republicanism.

The republican ticket of this county is first class in every respect and the nominees are sure winners.

Of course there is no coercion in Pima county politics. The only thing they have here are the "watchers."

SIXTEEN to ONE! Sixteen seconds to one ballot. No more. If you consume more time the "watchers" will have you spotted.

HON. CHARLES R. DRAKE continues to receive encouragement from a multitude of friends who are determined that he shall represent them in the next session of the territorial council.

It is not at all strange that Hopley is the choice of Pima county for sheriff.
He possesses those qualities of head and heart which gain the confidence and respect of every man he meets.

Put your ear to the ground! Listen!
What do you hear? It is the rumble of Knox Corbett's majority for treasurer, and the magnitude of the noise assures us that it is an awfully big one.

W. H. CULVER is making a quiet canvass as one of the republican nominees for justice of the peace. Success will crown his efforts, for he is a trustworthy, deserving man and a good citizen.

THE energetic way in which Bob Frazier has discharged the duties of his office since he has been constable have called the attention of the people to the fact that they need him for another two years. They will elect him, too.

Who will dispute any complimentary statement made of Henry Buehman?
Not a solitary soul in Pima county.
Why? Because conscientious men will not tell untruths, and all are acquainted with Buehman, so these many years.

HAVE you heard the latest? It is no secret, and you may tell it to everybody you see, if you like. Joseph S. Hopley is going to be next sheriff of Pima county. The fates have decreed it, and their laws are immutable.

THE stars and stripes at the head of the republican ballot cannot fail in attracting patriots. Our flag never appeared anywhere that it did not arouse the best impulses in the hearts of true Americans. Put a cross in the little square under the stars and stripes.

Look the republican ticket over.
Catechize yourself something after this fashion: "Can I trust these men to handle the county's business?" Your conscience will answer "Yes!" Then do your duty. Vote the ticket straight—a cross under the stars and stripes and it is done.

FROM now until the night of election day, republicans should stand by their colors and leave no stone unturned which will add to the chances of success.
Arizona cannot afford to send a popularist to congress this year.

JUDITH SCOTT is eating along very merrily with the assurance that the people do not forget such a record as his, and that they will not allow him to be defeated. It is already settled that he will continue to serve the people another term.

TELEGRAPHIC.

CANTON, O., Oct. 24.—Delegations began to arrive early this morning at a rate calculated to make the Saturday at least equal to volume and variety to the demonstration of earlier Saturdays of the campaign. The first delegation came from Lebanon Co., Berks Co., Schuylkill Co., and Montgomery territory in Pennsylvania. They arrived about 6:30 on a special train of seven coaches, but did not go to the McKinley home till 9 o'clock. In his speech to the Pennsylvania delegation, McKinley said: "The democratic party can hardly expect us to have confidence in their present prescription when the prescription they gave us in 1892, which they insisted was a cure for all our troubles, was so complete a failure." McKinley made a third address to the delegation from New York representing the towns of Elmira, Corning Bath, Hornellsville, Cuba, and Canastota, and I soon special train of a dozen coaches, and to several hundred from McKean County, Pa.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 24.—No trace of the quartette of train robbers who held up the regular west-bound train Chicago & Alton passenger train twenty miles east of here last evening, has been found. They were all disguised and had a good start of their pursues.
The express company officials claim the packages of jewelry secured by the robbers were valued at less than $50. No money was secured from the engineer being the only cash the robbers got.

ATLANTA, Oct. 23.—It is learned here, on what is believed to be unimpaired authority that fusion was agreed upon yesterday between Senator Jones and the Populist Committee, Washington. As a result, Washington is Chicago for Nashville, and H. W. Reed left Atlanta last night for the same place, where they will meet Tom Watson, Democratic National Chairman, and the fusion ticket will be announced as follows: yesterday: "We must accede to the demands of the populists for fusion in Georgia." The reply in substance was: "The populists of Georgia don't want fusion. They want a demand for fusion." To this Jones replied: "If these are facts use your own judgment." It appears from this that a general plan of fusion, satisfactory to the people, has been agreed upon between Watson and Jones, and Georgia alone stands in the way of its consummation.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 23.—General Wheaton and officers of the U. S. army in this city, have for several weeks been conducting an extensive campaign of distinguished appearance, who gave the names of Baron von Livezow and Baron von Sachsmitt, and said that they were officers of the German army.
They represented that they were on a tour of the world without money, and the guile of tramps to win a wager.
Among the entertainments provided here for the strangers was a ball at Fort Lyon. Supper having been served, a telegram was sent to the German embassy at Washington, to which a reply was received saying that nothing was known there regarding the two gentlemen.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 23.—The trades issued yesterday in connection with the recent purchase of arms, have resulted in a condition, the effect of which is regarded as grave. Mobs are opposed to the police, and the police are opposed to the mobs. The palace officials insisted that the measure was necessary for the defense of the Mussulmans religion, on the grounds that the Christians are preparing to attack the Mussulmans.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Attorney General Harmon, in regard to the removal of Mark A. Smith, assistant U.
S. attorney of Arizona, stated that he had not taken action, but awaited the result of queries and further information.

YREKA, Cal., Journal: The popocari are a frightened crowd just now, and the publication of Bryan's statement of his alleged confidence over his own signature is generally regarded as a forcible under existing circumstances. Not only is this frightened about the state which the republicans have secured to be in doubt at the beginning of the campaign, but which they now consider safe for McKinley, but also about seven or eight Southern states, some of the republicans have secured for McKinley than for Bryan, and now the antics of Tom Watson have not only a state of fright over North Carolina, and the republicans have secured Louisiana, and they are no longer carrying Texas. What they especially fear is that the republicans may withdraw their electoral ticket and support that of the gold democrats, an idea that is being advocated by some shrewd publicans for such states as Louisiana, where the gold democrats are numerous and influential.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Sir Julian Pancoste, British ambassador, called at the state department today for the purpose of presenting to Secretary Olney certain propositions regarding the Venezuelan controversy. The documents seemed to be of great importance, and the extent of the British individual interest in the disputed boundary territory information which Secretary Olney has also been brought from the British side. If this troublesome phase of the boundary dispute can be adjusted satisfactorily, there is no doubt that the main question in dispute can be surely drawn their electoral ticket and support that of the gold democrats, an idea that
publicans for such states as Louisiana,
and influential.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The populist
national committee, through Chairman Butler, has issued an official address urging the voters of the people's party, urging them to loyally support Bryan and follow his banner wherever it leads. The address is highly eulogistic of Bryan as the people's champion and urges the voters to support Bryan by the fact that there are two candidates for vice-president in the field. It says there are two months between election day and the election of a president, and there is surely wisdom enough in the two parties which support Bryan to adjust that complication satisfactorily to all.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 23.—Chas. F.
Crisp, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, died here this afternoon.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23.—The Hon.
Columbus Delano, secretary of the interior under Grant, died suddenly at 11 a. m.

CANTON, O., Oct. 23.—McKinley's first speech today was a response to W. H.
Elliott, who spoke on behalf of the delegations from Newcastle and Loganport, Ind., which re-elected the McKinley home rule committee. The speaker of the Atchison Railroad, from Kansas, after traveling over a thousand miles, reached Canton at noon today. They met Major McKinley who made a magnificent speech, and the delegates hundred men and women representing the directors of the Poor and Charities Association of Pennsylvania, which has closed its session at Elburg, called on Major McKinley this afternoon.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 23.—O. W. Pas-sady, of the banking firm of Kidder Peabody & Co. died today.

NOT A SICK DAY

For Over Thirty Years!

AYER'S PILLS
"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of constitution—(from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive diseases. When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to their remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had noticed that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."—H. WETTERSTEN, Byron, Ill.

Highest Honors at World's Fairs.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla Strengthens the System.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The Marquis of Salisbury has demanded the immediate release of Yip Sun, a Chinese physician said to be a British subject, who was, according to the statement of friends, kidnapped while passing the Chinese legation here and is held prisoner in the hands of a man charged with having been engaged in a conspiracy to overthrow the Manchu dynasty.

MATON, Ill., Oct. 23.—What is considered the battle ground of the campaign was entered by Bryan this morning. It has been understood that Bryan would not put up the fight he could when the prairie state was reached. Eighteen places were on the itinerary for today. A few more will be added before night just for good measure. Bryan left Maton at 8 o'clock, and met Bryan at Terre Haute last night, and today escorted him. Daville was the first stop.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 24.—The ambassadors today discussed the projected arming of Mussulmans, which it is believed is the project of the new plan, and is regarded as the most important event since the beginning of the crisis.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Barnett L. Price and Barnett L. Price, Jr., comprising the firm of Price & Co., wholesale dealers, were arrested today on warrants charging fraud in the disposition of $80,000 worth of stock and $10,000.
The Prices have been in business for some years.

WOODLAND, Cal., Oct. 24.—James L.
Pace, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Yolo county, was burned to death in his own home, near Cacherville, on Friday night. The family had retired for the night and were awakened by the roar of flames in the kitchen. Mr. Pace went into the room to extinguish the flames and was suffocated.

ROME, Oct. 24.—The civil marriage of the Crown Prince of Italy, to Princess Helene, of Montenegro, took place this morning in the ballroom of the Quirinal.
The young couple went in a procession to the church of Santa Maria degli, where the religious ceremony was celebrated.

BOWLING-GREEN, Ky., Oct. 24.—This city never held such a crowd as came today to hear Secretary Carlisle make the second of his series of Kentucky speeches. A delegation of gold standards and democrats from all the Third District are here; also many silver men.
Mayor Mallory has sworn in a large number of policemen who are stationed at several points of the opera house instructed to use various measures if any one offers violence against Secretary Carlisle. All morning Carlisle received a constant stream of callers at his hotel.
The silver democratic candidate, has relinquished his intention of demanding a division of time with Carlisle, but has announced that he will answer Carlisle's speech on the street in front of the opera house as soon as he concludes. Carlisle arrived at the opera house at 1 o'clock and was escorted by Mayor Wells of Covington, a farmer.
There was no disorder.

WICHITA, Kas., Oct. 24.—This city is crowded with visitors from a radius of fifty miles to hear ex-Speaker Reed.
He addressed an immense audience at 2 o'clock in the auditorium and then made a speech in a tent raised to accommodate 10,000 people.

national committee, through Chairman
urging the voters of the people's party,
there are two months between election
day and the election of a president, and
to all.

The state health board had stepped in COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 23.—John G.

Carlisle, secretary of the treasury, spoke last evening at Old Fellows hall in the interest of sound money democracy.
The hall was not a large one, but had it been ten times as large it would not have held those who were here to hear the secretary. Rumors had been circulated that an attempt would be made to break up the meeting. There was a disorderly element present in the rear of the audience, but they were easily kept in place on the stage. A majority of the audience, however, in sympathy with the speaker, drowned the hisses by vociferous cheering. The disturbance compelled the secretary to stop several times during the early part of his speech, but he was finally quieted by Mayor Richmond, and with the exception of isolated yells for Bryan, no further trouble occurred. A counter demonstration was held by silverites in the street in front of the building, but it in no way interfered with the meeting inside of the hall. The speech, which dealt mainly with the financial question, deflected the administrative and was warmly received.

Ottawa before 8 a. m. today to a good crowd which cheered his arrange-was devoted to the main to a general attack on the silverites. He said he combined a ticket in order to elect a republican. President Harrison and M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 26.—Copyright 1896, Associated Press.—The report that trouble of a serious nature is brewing in the Balkans, and that a general fresh announcement to that effect is looked upon as having little or no foundation; but in spite of this it is right to state that once more everything points to further very serious trouble preparing on all sides throughout the Turkish empire. The ball was set rolling Wednesday last when the Sultan signed two decrees laying a poll tax of five piastres per head on all Mussulmans and increasing the taxes on sheep, public works, and education from one to 1 1/2 per cent, the funds so raised to be devoted to military purposes.
This decisive representation of the powers to send collectively a note to Porte couched in the strongest language calling attention to the danger arising from Mussulmans was certain to create, and pointing out the general critical situation of affairs in the Turkish empire. Large purchases of arms have already been made and the danger is increasing hourly. The Porte sent this morning a collective note to the ambassadors and as usual it was evasive.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 26.—Two men houses less than a mile around.
